BEDFORD MAIN STREET WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Three Bedford area residents have received appointments to the Board of Directors of Bedford Main Street, Inc. Bedford Main Street welcomes these individuals to the team and looks forward to their input on projects that are beneficial to the Centertown District.

Miriam Boyd is a Realtor with Hall Associates on South Street. Before moving to Bedford, Miriam was an Associate Broker with Dobson & Johnson, the fifth largest privately held company in Nashville, Tennessee. Her background is technical with a major in Biology and Continuing Education in Accounting and Business Law. She specializes in commercial sales and leasing, historic, and equestrian properties.

Julie Mahon is the Bedford Historical Society's representative on the Bedford Main Street Board. She is employed as a planner for Bedford County where she works primarily on code administration and enforcement. She is also working on updating the comprehensive plan sections relating to historic resources and community character. Julie received a degree in Historic Preservation from Mary Washington College.

Bill Mosley is the Proprietor and Vice-President of Bedford Hardware, and General Manager of Proprietors Group of Bedford. A native of Atlanta, he held a variety of positions in banking and non-profit housing, and later owned remodeling and property management businesses there. He and his family moved to Bedford in 1990, and purchased the century-old Bedford Hardware business in 2000. Bill is a graduate of Vanderbilt University and is married to Bedford native Elizabeth Berry-Mosley.

Bedford Main Street, Incorporated is a non-profit organization dedicated to the historic preservation and economic development of Bedford's Centertown business district. Founded in 1985 as a part of the Virginia Main Street Program, Bedford Main Street achieves its goals through the activities of the Merchants Committee, Design Committee, Farmers Market, and special events in Centertown. Bedford Main Street also sponsors the Bedford Council for the Arts.
